Mr. Harold Weisberg,
Hyattstown, Maryland.

Dear Mr. Weisberg:

It is kind of you to write. I know you are very busy.

I will appreciate it if you will refer it to someone who can do something. It concerns all of us. President Johnson has asked for a tax increase. It is needless, and it would mean nothing if Congress granted it. Dishonesty in the government must be eliminated.

I have many letters that show disinterest and falsehoods. Public records will prove guilt when they are investigated.

Sincerely,
Katherine Terrell
